

LONDON STATIONERS GOLFING SOCIETY
SECRETARY'S REPORT
1972

Spring Meeting

Twelve members and nine guests turned out for the meeting which was held as usual at Durham on 4th May.

The Jack Ryman Cup was won by Stuart Beavis with a net 74 off a handicap of 17. This score was equalled by one of the guests Mr. P. Quinn.

Captains Day

This was held at Sunningdale on the 29th June. Sixteen members and twenty six guests turned out to honour our Captain, Graham Young, and do battle with this famous course.

Geoff Young won the President Trophy with 39 points in a Stableford competition. Lionel Scott tied with the same number of points, the result being finally decided after some very abstruse mathematics, over the last twelve holes.

The best score for the guests was 39 points returned by Bob Armstrong, guest of Alan Low.

During the afternoon Lionel Scott proved what a fine - but unlucky - competitor he was as he and his partner, Mr. B. Wilson, tied with John Nicholson and Mr. J. Gilmore for the first prize with 41 points. The prize eventually went to John Nicholson and partner on the basis of their score over the last six holes.

Match with the Publishers

This was held at Berkhamstead on Tuesday, 1st August.

Unfortunately I do not seem to have taken a note of the result - which I probably means we lost.

However it was a very enjoyable days golf enjoyed by all.

Autumn Meeting and Annual Dinner

Royal Mid Surrey Golf Club was the venue for this occasion on the 5th October.

Eleven members and ten guests attended. This was a disappointing number considering the Society has approximately forty members (although only seventeen paid their subs last year!!!).

During the medal in the morning Dick Stotesbury returned a net 68 (gross 91) and won the John Bond cup. Since then his handicap has been cut by two strokes and his best medal score has been a net 84.

Fred Liberty - a staunch supporter of the society - was the winning guest with a net 72.

The afternoon at Stableford was won by Alf Goldsmith and his guest Irving Conway with 39 points.

The dinner - although not well attended - turned out to be a very convivial affair and was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone.
